

WHERE YOU CAN WORSHIP TODAY

Salt Lake Churches
Welcome All.

What the Ministers of the Several Denominations
Will Speak Upon.

Why Don't You Go and Hear a Sermon This Morning?—You Will Feel Better.

During the past week the evangelical churches of Salt Lake have held a series of revival services, a soul saving campaign, at the First Methodist church.
The attendance has been large at every meeting and a vast amount of good accomplished. There were many who could not attend these meetings but who will attend services today. Topics for discussion in the several churches in the city for today are given in the following

DRUG HABITS

Easily Formed but Hard to Break.

A man down in old Virginia tells of his experience which points a simple and effective way out. He says:

"About 15 years ago my wife, through using coffee and laudanum for relief of neuralgia, became addicted to the habits, continuing until she had about destroyed stomach, nerves and mind.
This brought on periods of dementia lasting from one to two weeks, growing steadily worse until the 3rd of August last year our family physician called in consultation another doctor, who had been Resident Physician at our State Insane Asylum.
"They decided the only hope was to place her in a sanatorium, otherwise she would be hopelessly insane before the year was out. On investigation we found the charges for such a patient being our means, so it was necessary to face the worst at home.

"Upon the advice of a friend she stopped the use of coffee, of which she was very fond, and began the use of Postum Food Coffee as a remedy for the constipation which accompanied the attacks. The result was more than we expected. It not only relieved the constipation greatly but aided her to break the laudanum habit, for when she found herself possessed of the desire to 'take something' a cup of strong Postum would allay the desire and soothe and refresh her.

"This led to the regular use of Postum, and Grape-Nuts that also seemed to nourish and strengthen the over-wrought nerves, she steadily got better and better and today, instead of being in the insane asylum she is still with us in her own home, sounder in mind and body than for several years past.
The attacks of dementia have steadily grown milder and less frequent until now we have every reason to believe that she will soon be fully restored—sound in mind and body.

"I know this has been accomplished entirely by the aid of Postum and Grape-Nuts, for not since that consultation over a year ago has she taken a particle of medicine of any sort.

"In writing this my greatest desire is to bring the use of your products to the notice of some other unfortunate, trembling upon the brink of that most terrible of all calamities, insanity, and I thoroughly believe and know that leaving off coffee and other drugs and taking good food and drink is the surest means by which it can be averted. I give the name of our family physician, also the consulting physician, who can vouch for the truth of what I have written. You are at liberty to furnish name and address to any one really interested." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Services for Business People at Y. M.
C. A.
The mid-day services for business people held in the new Y. M. C. A. building during the week, proved both interesting and profitable, as was evidenced by the steadily growing attendance. Addresses were delivered by the Episcopalian clergy of the city, closing with a most stirring one by Bishop Spalding yesterday. The bishop will conduct the meetings and speak every day this week with the exception of good Friday, when Judge Ritchle will lead and give address.

of Unity circle Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. to be prompt.

AMUSEMENTS

The battalion of High School cadets will present "Macbeth" as a comedy at the Salt Lake Theatre on next Friday night. The original has been rearranged by Harold Goff and Robert D. Thomas of the University Dramatic club, under whose direction the entertainment will be given. For the past two months the students have been working diligently and a very creditable and amusing production is expected. The students have gone into the venue with spirit, and that they have the support of their fellow-students is manifest in the large sale of tickets. Yesterday some unique handbills, ornamented with ludicrous cartoons done by Ralston Gibbs, were distributed about the city. The cast follows: Macbeth.....Vaughan Paul
Mrs. Macbeth.....Royal Martinson Macduff.....Walter Koytling Lady Macduff.....Seco Lynn Duncan.....Julian Bamberger
Malcolm.....Fred Bassett
Banquo.....Tom Butt
First Witch.....Corwin Lee Second Witch.....Joseph Johnston
Third Witch.....John Flindro First Murderer.....Monte Elliott Shakespeare.....Mark Greenbeck Queen Elizabeth.....Curtis Claesson Sir Walter Raleigh.....Will Grow
Bacon.....Lynn Smith

Thursday, April 21, afternoon and evening, at the Salt Lake Theatre. "The Queen" will be presented by Madam Swenson Macbeth. The opera is one of the most useful productions of its kind and promises to rank among the best efforts ever given here by any amateur organization. Rehearsals have been under way for some weeks.
In addition to the numerous opportunities for fine chorus singing, some good solo selections will be heard from madam's most advanced singers, including Mrs. Browning, Miss Mc-Intyre, Miss Hilda Peterson, Miss Leonard More, Miss Hazel Wimmer, Miss Sarah Shaw, Miss Loveland, Miss Grace and Miss Surren, the last-named from Pocatello.
D. Spencer is looking after the staging and music effects of the affair and the preparation of the ballet numbers. John E. Hansen is in charge of the business and other features of the venture.

Yankee is booked to play at the Salt Lake Theatre on Thursday evening, May 11. This artist has been doing a heavy business in the East, having played nineteen nights in New York city alone.

I CURED MY RUPTURE

I Will Show You How to Cure Yours
FREE.

I was helpless and bed-ridden for years from a double rupture.
No truss could hold. Doctors said I would die if not operated on.
I fooled them all and cured myself by a simple discovery. I will send the cure free by mail if you write for it. It cured me and has since cured thousands. It will cure you. Write to-day. Capt. W. A.
